

Liberalisation and Financial Resilience in Incomplete Markets

Joint Tsinghua University – LSE – CF40 Workshop

13th December 9:00-17:00pm

Venue: Tsinghua University, School of Economics and Management (Room 401, Weilun Building)

This workshop will discuss distortions and the two-sector nature of the Chinese economy; financial liberalisation under such circumstances; and China's growing engagement in global financial governance – “Global China”.

The event is supported by a joint grant of the UK Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) and the National Natural Science Foundation of China (NSFC) and co-organised by Tsinghua University and London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE), along with the CF40. It will bring together renowned academics from lead Chinese universities and LSE, central bank officials, policy makers and business practitioners.
